

Nominees sought for NEA state delegate positions.

The Iowa State Education Association is now accepting nominations for individuals who want to be state delegates to the National Education Association Representative Assembly in Houston, TX, July 2 – 7, 2019.

Nomination forms (see below) are also available online at www.isea.org. Completed forms should be postmarked no later than December 31 and mailed to Janet Wilson at the Iowa State Education Association headquarters, 777 Third Street, Des Moines, IA, 50309.

If you wish to have the nomination verified, a self-addressed, stamped envelope must accompany the nomination form. State delegates may be nominated and elected at-large and/or nominated and elected from within their electoral district. Nominations for representation may be submitted as follows:

Category 1 members: Teachers and other non-supervisors, which includes NEA Active, Life, and Educational Support members, who are not supervisors, holding ISEA membership.

Category 2 members: Others, which include retired NEA Life members and NEA-Retired who are ISEA members; also supervisors who are NEA Active, Life and/or Educational Support who are ISEA members.

Each state delegate who attends the 2019 Representative Assembly will receive up to $1,500 for expenses provided they meet the funding guidelines.

Voting for this year's delegates will take place beginning in February. Watch for more details as they come available.
